SHOOTING AT A DANCE.

Trouble over a girl at a moonlight picnic at Warrior Run, ten miles from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., resulted in three men being shot and one stabbed at an early hour yesterday morning, while four including the girl, have been captured by troops of the state constabulary and held for a hearing. Most of the girls had left the dance owing to the late hour and there was a scarcity of partners. When Miss Julia Stagg, a well-known dancer, was dancing with George Gillis, ill-feeling that had existed between the two men for some months was aroused, and a few minutes later they bumped together in the middle of the platform and hot words were passed and a fight was quickly started.

Friends of each man rushed to his aid and among them was Simpliceon Brill, known as Simple Brill. It is charged that he drew a revolver and fired as fast as he could pull the trigger. George Gillis was shot first, the bullet tearing through his abdomen; John Bakowsky went down with a bullet that shattered his jaw, and plowed through his neck. A free fight was under way by this time and during it Charles Cassalovich was stabbed in the abdomen and dangerously wounded. Cries of police from the frightened men and women at last caused the fighters to flee, and the wounded men were then cared for.

A PEACE PACT.

A peace pact of importance to organized labor was reached in Cincinnati last night between officers of the American Federation of Labor and members of the Stove Founders' National Defense Association. The effect of the agreement is to end the bitter warfare between the Federation of Labor and the Stove Founders' National Defense Association, of St. Louis.

The association and the stove company, through representatives, announced their withdrawal from the prosecutions against President Gompers, Vice President John Mitchell and Secretary Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, in the contempt cases now pending against them. The prosecutions hanging over Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison, of the Federation of Labor, have passed out of the hands of the stove company, which instituted them, and are now pending in the United States Supreme Court at Washington.

Gompers announces that the company has agreed to abandon its open shop policy, and hereafter to employ none but union men.

UTILIZING SNAKES.

A new use for snakes was discovered on the farm of Samuel K. McLaughlin, of near Adena, a few miles east of Cadiz, Ohio, by Charles Albright, a farmer. He saw a garden snake coiled about a potato plant near him, and killed it.

He was surprised in a few moments to see another snake coiled about the top of a plant in another row, and, being curious to know what the snake was doing in such a position, he watched for a few moments, and was rewarded by seeing the snake gather the potato bugs from all over the plant and eat them with apparent relish. He allowed this snake to have its freedom, and he says there would be work for quite a little army of these reptiles in his potato field.

Many farmers refuse to allow snakes of any kind found in that section to be killed, as they declare they destroy hundreds of field mice, rats and even ground squirrels, that are such a pest to farmers in destroying grain of different kinds at different seasons of the year.

SWINDLER CAPTURED.

Charged with swindling a Brooklyn, N. Y., woman out of $13,500 and several valuable bonds after marrying her, Dr. Henry B. Keeler, said to have once been a prominent New York dentist, was arrested in Detroit yesterday. In company with him a woman is held at police headquarters, who, it is alleged, posed as his sister and assisted him in getting the $13,500. According to the police, the authorities of America and Europe have been searching the world for the pair.

The police have been on the trail of the couple for months and had traced them all over the country, but always got clues just a few hours too late. Keeler married Mrs. Lynch before absconding with her property, and she has been relentless in her pursuit of him. He told the woman after marrying her that he owned an amethyst mine in Mexico, but that it was in litigation and he needed money to defend his claims.
